District #21 Convention June 24-26, 2011 Pleasanton Hilton

by William Anton

Convention time is approaching; it will be here before we know it. Your host this year is the Oakland Chapter of Ahepa #171, Daughters of Penelope Echo #4, and our wonderful Maids of Athena Eleni #154. The dates of this year's convention are June 24th-26th, and will be held at THE PLEASANTON HILTON, 7050 Johnson Drive, Pleasanton, CA 94588.

The Daughters will meet on Friday at approximately 12 o'clock noon. After they convene they will join the Ahepans in the beautiful outdoor patio for a welcome gathering which will include an array of hors d'oeuvres and a no-host bar.

Saturday there will be business meetings and lunch will be served as we honor the recipients of the District Scholarship Awards. At the conclusion of our meetings, we'll proceed to the main ballroom for a fantastic dinner, dancing, and announcement of the LUCKY rafflewinners. We will also introduce our new District Officers for the next year.

Your chairpersons will be: Past District Governor, Steve Miller; Past Chapter President, William Anton; and Past Chapter President, Sophia Johnston. They are here to serve you and help make this convention total enjoyment for everyone, and once again another Oakland classic event. Your local chapters will soon have flyers with all the pertinent information. ❖

AHEPA District Governor's Message

Nick Pries
District Governor

Dear AHEPA Brothers
 "Time fly's," I say it ZOOMS!
 Already into the third month of 2011, incredible!

Let's continue this "young year" on a good note by attending our Spring Conference, Saturday, March 12 hosted by the San Francisco AHEPA Family. Remember the "Early Bird Charity Raffle" will take place. Plan to attend, an enjoyable day is being planned.

Enjoyable day is being planned.

Sadly, our Vallejo Chapter has decided to close, we're very sad at the news. Hopefully, some of the brothers will migrate to other chapters. We will miss you Vallejo - good luck!

Scholarship applications are due April 1, 2011. Make sure applications are complete and submitted on time.

I would like to thank District Governor Margo Drosos for setting up all the chapter visitations. A very difficult job, well done and appreciated. The visitations are complete now and were very enjoyable. Thank you to all the chapters for their terrific hospitality. Also, thank you for the continuing support of my District Lodge members.

Remember to work on building our AHEPA District membership. Let's motivate our kids to consider AHEPA and become active. One idea, present them with a gift of membership on birthdays or any special occasion. We can and should encourage our young men to join AHEPA. For the year 2009-2010 our district added 50 new members.
 Bravo! Keep up the good work!

As we begin the Lenten season my best regards for health and prosperity. God bless you all and your families.

Nick Pries, District Governor

Dates to remember

Spring Conference - Saturday, March 12th

Scholarship Applications Due - Friday, April 1st

Sisterhood Conference - April 8, 9 and 10th

District #21 Convention - June 24, 25 and 26th

Supreme Convention - July 18 - 24th

DOP District Governor's Message

Margo Drosos
District Governor

Dear Sisters,

Soon we will be entering the Lenten Season and prepare for the most sacred time in our religious belief. Even though we are all extremely busy preparing for this time, in addition to electing our delegates for our conventions –
 District Convention in Oakland, June 24 & 25; and our National Convention in Miami Florida July 18th – 24th, we are also electing our chapter officers.

The Lodge has completed our visitations. Knowing this would be my last term as your District Governor, those visitations were bitter sweet. I have truly enjoyed working with the Chapter Officers and watched, with pride, the growth and confidence each President has attained. They have displayed a potential that would be well suited for our District Lodge. As I have stated many times, every chapter has given of themselves and given insight to how passionate we are! They have proven it doesn't matter if they are a large or small chapter – the message is clearly evident –
 we have a dedication to promoting Hellenism, Education, Philanthropic Endeavors, and Civic Responsibility. Way to go Sisters!!

Our Spring Conference is rapidly approaching – March 12th at Annunciation Cathedral, 245 Valencia Street; San Francisco. You will receive information regarding the District Convention in Oakland and any other pertinent information. Of course, the early bird drawing will be held for the Charitable Raffle. If you need more tickets, please contact PJ Rishard, Lt. Gov., Co-Chair for the raffle, at 209-915-3541. Let's make a genuine effort to support the San Francisco Ahepa and Daughters for this event.

Information for the National Convention in Miami will be forth coming. Also scheduled on our calendar for this spring is our annual Tri-District Sisterhood Conference on April 9th in San Jose. District #21 is hosting the event this year.

Please make sure all eligible applicants for scholarships have their applications in by April 1st. All chapter presidents have received applications should you need one.

On behalf of the Lodge - P.J. Rishard, Chrsanthy
 Panagopoulos, Helen Sexton, Kathy Leles, Sylvia Golfes, Tina Demetriou, and me, we wish all our Ahepa Family –
 Ahepa, Daughters, Maids & Sons - a blessed Easter season.

Love In Theta Pi,
 Maro Drosos, District Governor

SUNDAY COFFEE HOUR WILL BE HELD AT THE HELLENIC MUSEUM

SISTERHOOD OF ANGELS

by Marion Parashis, EOS #1

There are many Sisterhoods in every neighborhood,
But only a special, gifted, Angelic one
To which I'm honored and so privileged to belong.

A Sisterhood, cloistered in warmth, support, and love,
Believing in the true meaning of Country and Man,
Fiercely demonstrates the spirit of loyalty,
Religiously recognizes the Supreme Holy Hand.

The laws of God and the laws of Man,
My cherished Sisterhood tries to respect and obey.
Through talking, drinking, and enjoying a bite of lamb,
My Sisters each have something gifted to say.

Their beliefs and opinions often times vary,
Each is educated with her own career.
But regardless of all diversity,
Within our group there is no fear.

This is a new Dawn, a new Era, a fresh Year.
We need to continue and to persevere,
To strive, to assist all who are here,
Without turmoil, without shedding another tear!

My Enchanted Sisters are all Angels,
Each Angel distinct in her own rite!
Many Sisters are walking this Earth,
Some are basking in God's awesome light.

For my Angelic Sisters who breathe earth's air,
I have but the greatest desire.
Continue to treat each other with love in the utmost flair,
Do not allow vile gossip to make you tire!
My awe and devotion for all you Earth Angels,
Whose names begin from A and finish with Z,
Extends to your gracious, fluttering wings,
Only God's Angels can possibly see.

And now, our Spiritual Sisterhood, our Angels dwelling in heaven,
How lucky they all are!

My cousin is among them, enjoying each and every star, Breathlessly hovering, watching, protecting and not very far.

My Sisterhood of Angels, whether here or there,
Are to be perpetually respected and assuredly admired,
For all the warmth, love, support they each share!
Truly, their heartfelt achievements will never expire!

Sparta Chapter #18 Stockton

By Kathy Leles

Our chapter is thriving and hoping to grow. Sincere thanks to all the sisters who sent in their dues on time. We have been growing, but Sparta Chapter would love to have more sisters join us. We are planning a membership tea in the Spring, not only to bring in new members but to honor long-time members with pins. Welcome to P.J. Rishard's 92 year old mother, Katherine Poulos, who joined the Daughters in Wyoming in 1950, and is now a member of the Sparta Chapter.

We continue to donate toiletries, books and clothing to the Women's Center of San Joaquin County which is also the site of Penelope's Library.

We are looking forward to having a good number of Sparta members travel to the upcoming Spring Conference as well as our Sisterhood Conference, which encompasses three DOP districts. This is an opportunity to meet other sisters from Washington, Oregon, Southern California and Arizona. A Sparta member reunited with a childhood friend at the Santa Barbara conference. Her friend is a sister from the Chandler, AZ chapter and the friendship continues.

Special Congratulations to Sparta sister and District #21 Secretary Chrisanthy Panagopoulos for her formidable achievement on her recent graduation from San Jose State University with a degree in clinical laboratory sciences. She accomplished this while still working full time at St. Joseph's Hospital. Best wishes, too, to Sister Angeline Paraskevas and her husband Bill on the birth of their beautiful baby girl Alexis. ❖

Echo Chapter #4 Oakland

By Dria Fearn, Esq., Recording Secretary

Echo #4 has been keeping busy in 2011. As has become tradition, Echo #4 held a special Saturday meeting in January, followed by a wonderful potluck luncheon. During the meeting we honored our Chapter's Past Presidents with a special ceremony prior to adjournment. The Past Presidents in attendance were Sophie Constantine, Caliroy Hadjopoulos, Sophia Johnston, Louise Metaxas, Irene Protopsaltis, and Catherine Stamatakis. Tina Demetriou stood in for her daughter Sammi, the first and only Past President of the Maids of Athena. A special thanks to Sophia Johnston for coordinating the ceremony, Dria and Emmy Fearn for arranging the flowers, and Linda Cliff for conducting the ceremony.

Also at the January meeting, the Chapter selected George Mark Children's House as our adopted charity for 2011. Located in San Leandro, George Mark Children's House provides end-of-life and respite care to children with life-limiting illnesses, and is the first and only freestanding residential pediatric palliative care center in the United States. As Echo #4's adopted charity, George Mark will receive all of the Chapter's Charitable Raffle proceeds, as well as additional monies raised for this purpose. The Chapter also voted to do its first-ever no-show/virtual fundraiser to establish a district scholarship honoring our Chapter's past presidents. $850 has been raised thus far! (Please contact me directly if you would like to contribute.)

In February, Echo #4 hosted the District Lodge for our annual visitation. We shared a wonderful meal with the Ahepans and dessert was provided by Ceil Koplos and Mary Ann Gipson, as has become our tradition, to celebrate the anniversary of Ceil and Jim Koplos anniversary. During our regular meeting, our Chapter decided to explore compiling a cookbook as a chapter fundraiser. (We welcome our brothers and sisters across District 21 to contribute recipes, so please contact me if you have a great family recipe you would like to share.)

In addition, we continue to support Building Futures with Women and Children, which helps women and children in crisis to become safely and supportively housed, free from homelessness and family violence in Alameda County. Under the leadership of Penelope Library Chairman Cathy Giouzelis, our chapter has contributed carloads of books, toys, clothing, kitchenware, supplies, and has even cooked a Sunday dinner for the temporary residents at the organization's safe house in San Leandro.

We are excited to host the upcoming District Convention on June 24-25, 2011. Registration forms will be available soon. And we look forward to seeing you in Pleasanton this summer!

Contact Dria Fearn, dria@dopoakland.org or (510) 545-DOP4, if you'd like to contribute to the District Scholarship or provide a favorite Greek or non-Greek recipe for our cookbook. For more information on Echo #4, visit us online at www.dopoakland.org. ❖

Reno Ahepa Family

The Daughters of Penelope, Elis Chapter 89 Christmas Bake Sale. It was a good success, in spite of our economy. We raised $3000.

This has become a favorite with our Church community, and our Reno-Sparks, NV community. The wrapped cookies made great Christmas presents. This is our largest fundraiser.

We enjoyed sharing ideas. And learning how to expand and promote the Daughters of Penelope and the Order of AHEPA.

We will be hosting a "3-C's Brunch and Fashion Show-Career-Casual and Camp" On March 5. Orvis, Pendleton, I Me Mine (owned by our own Elaine Duffy) and At the Ritz Salon will present the fashions. It will be held at the Hidden Valley Country Club from 9:30am to 1 pm. on Saturday March 5. Lots of raffle prizes, door prize, and fun. Dr. John Lagios, John Copoulos, and Strati Tsanas will be modeling also. (That will be fun!) The dop elis chapter 89 will sponsor the lenten luncheon on Sunday march 20 after liturgy. We will have. Fassoulada. Faki. Salad bread. The donation will be $5 per. Adult. And. $3 per child. All the proceeds will be used toward paying off the mortgage on the saint anthony kitchen expansion..

We will be hosting an Independence Day Crabfest on Saturday March 26. We will have Crab, Chicken, Salad. Contact Dr. John Lagios or Joan Lagios for more information at jelagios@gmail.com This event is open to the community. It is always a lot of fun and entertainment, and educational. ❖

Chapter #171, Oakland

by William Anton

Once again Oakland Chapter #171 in partnership with the DOP Echo Chapter # 4, sponsored another classic Christmas Party in the Richmond room at their beautiful Cathedral property. Plenty of fine food, pumpkin cheese cake, and liquid spirits in the open bar. District Governor's, Margo Drosos, Nick Pries, and the Counsel General of Cyprus Nicolaos Theophanos honored us with their presence. Our President was not in attendance, however, we have to give a pass to Nick Gianopoulos and his beautiful wife Mary. They were at a nearby hospital being blessed with a beautiful baby boy HUMAN as Nick described. Congrats to the new grandparents!

Christmas carols were sung in fine fashion led by Rev. Fathers Tom Zeferes and Neboysa Patric.

The party was a huge success and Chairperson's, Bill Anton and Sophia Johnston acknowledge it only happens with a great supporting cast. Our cooks: George Giouzelis, Steve Brogalias, and others. John Carvounnis with his always special salad. At the bar, Drea Fearn; keeping track of the seating single handed, Emiliene Fearn. Sophia Constantine and Marlene Panacci collecting and organizing the table raffle. Once again the Maids of Athena for all their wonderful work serving and clean up.

A special thanks to Sophia Johnston for the donation of two cases of wine and the loan of her table cloths, saving the chapter a considerable amount of money.

To all that attended we thank you again. You are the reason Oakland does it right. ❖

Daphne Chapter #29, San Jose

by Laurie Sabines, PDG

Well, it's already March 2011 and the year is in full swing. New members and reinstatements are in the wing so we are starting our year quite well.

The Daughters of Penelope, District #21 hold a Sisterhood Conference each year. It alternates each year between Districts 20, 21 and 22. This year it is being held in District #21 and is hosted by our Daphne Chapter on April 9th, 2011. Saturday events will consist of our Conference, Saturday night we will be going to dinner and a play, Sunday church at St. Nicholas after which we will be taking a tour of the Hellenic Heritage Museum in San Jose. We look very forward to seeing our Sisters from Northern and Southern California, Utah, Arizona and Washington. We also look forward to welcoming them to St. Nicholas.

Our biggest fundraiser each year is the Garden Tea where we all don our most beautiful or outrageous hats, eat, shop and have a great time. In this issue of the Cannon of Faith there is a flyer with all the particulars. It is being held on April 30th, 2011 at 2:00 pm at the home of Jennifer Tynes, 139116 Chester Avenue Saratoga, CA. Directions are a bit too lengthy to print in this article but can be obtained by calling Cathy Photopoulos at (408) 867-2840. We will be having our usual hat parade and boutique vendors so start getting your creativity going and work on your hat entries. See flyer on next page, ❖

Order of AHEPA Daughters of Penelope Golden Gate District No. 21

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Once again the Ahepa Family of Golden Gate District 21 is sponsoring the Grand Charities Raffle. We need your help to insure the success of this raffle.

CHARITABLE RAFFLE PRIZES
1st	$20,000.00
2nd	$10,000.00
3rd	$ 5,000.00
4th	$ 1,500.00
5th - 6th	$ 1,000.00 each
7 th - 13th	$ 500.00 each

An early bird drawing will be held at the Spring Conference in San Francisco on Saturday, March 12, 2011. Four prizes of $500 each will be drawn. Each winner of the early bird drawing is still eligible for the final grand prize drawing.

Although each of these tickets requires a $100 donation, several individuals may want to contribute towards one or more tickets to improve your chances of winning.

FINAL GRAND PRIZE DRAWING Saturday, May 25, 2011 79th Annual District Convention Hosted by Oakland AHEPA Family

The more tickets we sell, the more we are helping our Chapter's designated charities. Tell your friends, families and co-workers how they can help too.

Please complete the form below and mail it with your check to:

George Booras
Special Projects Chairman
P.O. Box 1556
Danville, CA 94526

or

P.J. Rishard
Special Projects Co-Chairman
